AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS

Welcome to the ASCE Library!

ASCE Library delivers the most respected and richest collection of civil engineering content. It is the premier information clearinghouse for both researchers and practitioners in the field of civil engineering.

1 Register

As a registered user, you can get benefits such as free papers, content alerts, and saved search alerts, and take advantage of the tools offered by ASCE Library to streamline your research. Click on the “Log in / Register” link and “Register” on the pop-up.

The screenshot shows the ASCE Library website header with the logo and navigation links. A pop-up window titled "LOGIN TO YOUR ACCOUNT" is displayed in the center. The pop-up has two input fields: "USERNAME" and "PASSWORD". Below the "PASSWORD" field is a "Forgot password?" link. There is a "Keep me logged in" checkbox with a toggle switch. At the bottom of the pop-up are "Login" and "Register" buttons. In the top right corner of the website header, there is a "LOG IN / REGISTER" link, which is highlighted with an orange box. An orange arrow points from this link to the "Register" button in the pop-up.

2 Search on Any Page

Click the “Search” link on any page while using ASCE Library. You may also click on the “Advanced Search” link to specify author, article type, publications, publication year, and/or where in the article the search term appears to get a more targeted result.

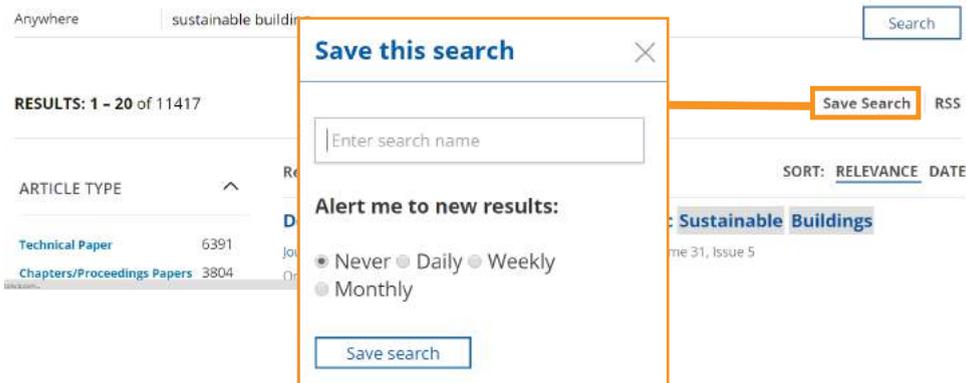

The screenshot shows the ASCE Library website header with the logo and navigation links. Below the header is a search bar. The search bar has a placeholder text "Anywhere" and a text input field with the placeholder text "Enter search term(s)". To the right of the input field is a "search" button. Further to the right is a link for "Advanced Search".

3 Saved Search

Save your search criteria and set up a monthly, weekly, or daily e-mail alert telling you when new material in your interest area is added to the Library. You can view your saved searches in “My Profile” by clicking on “Saved Searches” in the left-hand navigation bar.

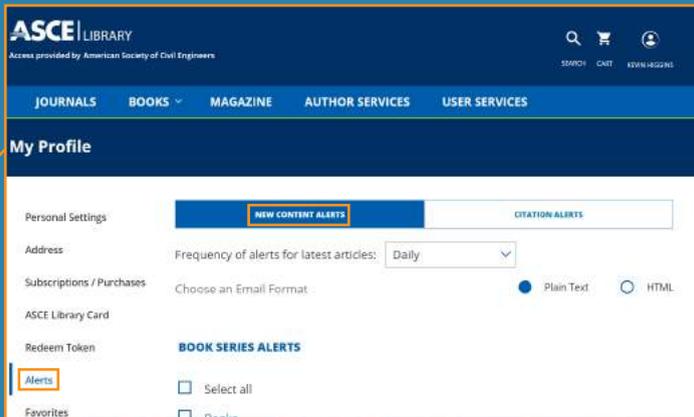

Search Tip #1: Use SAVE SEARCH to activate alerts for new content matching your search criteria.

4 Get Content Alerts and RSS Feeds

Get instant updates whenever new journal content and new books are available. In the “User Services” section, click on “Alerts” on the left-hand navigation bar to sign up for e-mail alerts for journals and books. Click on “RSS Feeds” to subscribe to feeds for journals.

5 ASCE Library Productivity Tool

Read, organize, annotate, collaborate, and share.
Start with the interactive PDF, powered by colwiz™.

Features and Benefits:

- Annotate PDFs—highlight text, write notes, and draw directly on articles
- Share notes—including annotated PDFs, references, data, and other documents
- Cite references and generate bibliographies from libraries shared with colleagues.
- Read articles on the go—access your references and PDFs anywhere from multiple devices.
- Store in the cloud—save references, PDFs, data, and notes in the secure colwiz™ cloud with 30GB of free space.
